

Leamington House - Barbados

Leamington House is a 5 bedroom colonial style Great House set in the exclusive Leamington Estate. Extended by Oliver Messel, the famous architect, the house was for many years the home of the American Ambassador.

The villa was recently modernised for the owners. The accommodation comprises of a very spacious living and dining area which leads to a covered patio, walled garden and private swimming pool - 4 double air-conditioned bedrooms, each with private bathroom, on the first floor and a fifth bedroom and bathroom are located on the ground floor. To complete the accommodation there is a TV room downstairs.

There is a private pathway that leads directly from the gardens to the beach

Staff: Butler, Cook, Maid, Laundress, Gardener, Security

Amenities: High Speed Internet Access, Air conditioned bedrooms, BBQ, Cable TV, CD player, DVD player, Safe

